On July 27, 1968, an angel was born in Norman, Oklahoma, and on the 1st day of December 2022, she was carried home to her heavenly father on the wings of an eagle surrounded by the Angels of God at the age of 54 years, 4 months and 4 days.

Sheila was placed on loan for her years on earth to James Terry and Linda Gail Farris (Wilson) of Norman, Oklahoma. Sheila attended Norman public schools. Sheila worked at Wrights, IGA and Homeland and other various jobs in Norman, but the job she loved was working as a Tech and administrative assistant with the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services up until her first back surgery. It gave her great joy to help others in need, and she provided support for many.

Those that knew Sheila know there was a lot of dynamite packed into that small body, they know she loved deeply, and they know, that to Sheila, there was no one else as important as family. Sheila adored her grandchildren and loved to travel, spend time with friends and family. She loved being "Oma". Sheila met her husband Ron at her sister's wedding in August of 1984. Their paths crossed several times thought out the years and, after both had traveled down some broken roads, God led them together in March of 2007. From that time, they were inseparable and married on September 5, 2008.

Sheila was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Richard Glen 'Jack' Wilson and Juvine 'Judy' Wilson; her paternal grandparents, Ira Glen Farris and Geraldine 'Jerri' Farris (Poe); and her mother, Linda Gail Farris (Wilson).

She is survived by her husband, Ron; her father, James Terry Farris; her sons, Jeremy Farris, Colby Farris and wife Assatta Farris; her grandchildren, Liam Farris-Broach, Molly Farris and Zion Farris; her siblings, Carla Meyers, Terri Gale Farris, Barbara Hyde and husband Frankie, Kathy Madden and husband Clifford; and numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
