Bridget - You and your children have been in my thoughts since I heard the sad news. While I did not know Glenn, the entries in this guest book demonstrate that he was a special man -- I'm not surprised, considering the quality of the woman he fell in love with and married! I am keeping you and your family in my thoughts & prayers. May the Lord bring all of you comfort in your grief!

Bridget, Morgan, Hannah, Jake, Regan, and Jake; Glenn has been one of my dearest friends for 13 years. He helped so many people through rough times...always with a wicked sense of humor and that one- of- a- kind laugh. No one who heard it will ever forget it. Glenn always told people like it was...even if they didn't want to hear it. For that, he was a true friend...Only people who love you tell you the truth. I would like you all to know how much you were loved...how he spoke of his family and how proud he was of all of you. Life doesn't make sense much of the time...but I know Someone is watching out for Glenn and all of us that are left missing him. Peace to you.
